

WEEKEND RETREAT at BLUE JAY

Red Sun Academy invited out-of-state Guest Instructors to introduce our students to various different styles. One Guest Instructor taught Friday evening. Another taught Saturday morning until we broke for lunch. Another taught Saturday afternoon, and the last instructor taught Sunday mid-morning before we backed up to leave. These were memorable weekends.

Guest Instructors from Colorado, New York, Florida, Texas, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania introduced their styles. Styles included Muay Thai, Krav Maga, Ninjutsu, Silat from Indonesia, Kobu-Jutsu, Animal Fighting styles, Sayokan, and Zen Kensei Do.

Our fall retreat at Blue Jay Park's lodge on the lake was a weekend to remember always. The lodge is in Blue Jay's 230-acre park and overlooks Falls Lake. Guest Instructors from various parts of the country traveled for this special weekend. The weekend included several outdoor training sessions, hikes, a lasagna dinner, campfires at night, star-gazing, and a Sunday morning meditation. These were memorable weekends.

The late and well-known Shihan ED MARTIN was truly one of our special Guest Instructors. Ed "Papasan" Martin had traveled to teach martial arts in several countries. It was an honor to have him attend one of our retreats and instruct our students.

Sensei's dog Pony relaxes on Sensei's cot after a long day.